MARILYN'S 100TH BIRTHDAY SPECIAL!

THE MAKING OF AN ICON

B

Born on June 1,
1926 in Los Angeles, California

Marilyn Monroe entered the world as Norma Jeane Mortenson. She was destined to become one of the most enduring icons of beauty, film, and femininity.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

Fashion & Culture

The 1920s were in full swing—hemlines were rising, waistlines were dropping, and the modern woman was emerging. Designers like Coco Chanel were redefining elegance with relaxed silhouettes and effortless chic. The flapper look dominated, bobbed hair, bold lips, and a rebellious spirit.

Entertainment

Silent films ruled Hollywood, with stars like Clara Bow captivating audiences. Movie palaces were booming, and cinema was becoming America's favorite escape. The transition to "talkies" was just around the corner, setting the stage for Marilyn's future rise.

MARILYN MONROE

SPECIAL FEATURE!

If she had 100 YEARS... had Marilyn lived to see 100, she would not have faded, she would have evolved. Even in her lifetime, she was already changing her story, founding her own production company, studying her career, and pushing beyond the image the world painted of her.

Whether One imagines a woman who might have led, created, and mentored .. continuing to shape Hollywood on her own terms. Because what she built in just 36 years was never accidental.

It was a legacy.
